

DEALING WITH AN EMERGENCY SITUATION

- a) Minor injuries (e.g. minor contusion, abrasion,...):
Treated by an ESHA paramedic-the injured person will be accompanied by the team leader.
- b) More complicated injuries or illnesses (e.g. suspected concussion, severe abdominal pain,...):
Immediately summon the ESHA paramedic who will ensure that the injured (or ill) is taken to the hospital and that the ESHA management is informed.
- c) Very severe injuries or illness:
 - Call immediately : Tel: 155 - emergency. Service
 - Call ESHA paramedic immediately.
 - Then inform ESHA management
